COLLEGIATE PEAKS FORUM SERIES

Lectures in Philosophy
Religion &
Science

We depend on community support to bring its programs to Chaffee County. All lectures are free to the public and encourage diverse interest in philosophy, religion and science. Now in its seventh year of growth the Collegiate Peaks Forum Series has proven it can drive new business to Chaffee County through local participation and tourism. Become a business contributor and increase your visibility to all of those who come to partake in the Forum Series.

- Your Business Listing on the CPFS website which features all seven years of Lectures and the benefits of Chaffee County:
  - Your Listing will be featured on the Contributors AND Links pages of the website visit www.collegiatepeaksforum.org for examples

- Your Business Listing at each lecture series (typically 4 lectures per year) on:
  - Event programs
  - Posters - 28 by 34 inch posters
  - Mailings to a 600 person data base (some of the top intellectuals in the valley)

- These lecture series are promoted through extensive website calendar section promotions, newspapers ads, academic, college and attendee mailings and heavy state wide public relations initiatives.
